In the year 1826, Halsey Gates with his family and a small company founded the Village of Gates Mills on the banks of the Chagrin River. They established homes, a school, a store, and lumber and grist mills. The village grew, Mayfield became a main post road from Cleveland to the East and one of the Gates homes was made the "Eagle Tavern" in 1839. The same house is now the clubhouse of the Chagrin Valley Hunt Club.
